VENUE DESCRIPTION

A fine dining restaurant set within the historically designated White House of Bay View. Known for its turrets and domers, the White House has been a landmark for Bay View since the late 1800's. The Queen Anne-style building originally opened as a Schlitz tavern back in 1893 by the Kneisler family. A long serving meeting place for politicians during elections, the White House would be a perfect venue for any DNC affiliated party. Fine dining cuisine, classic cocktails, import beers, and extensive wine list. We are located three blocks from the shores of Lake Michigan, near the south shore yacht club. Parking available on site.
